

reception of the Stores, with all convenient expenditure.

5 When this is done and the People and Stores landed you will dispatch the Amity to this port with a detail of your proceedings an account of the place, with a Sketch of the proposed Settlement and neighbouring Country and a full report on all other matters worthy of attention particularly such observations as you may consider useful in enabling the Government to decide upon the Steps which it may be proper to take with respect to a more permanent Establishment. To this end you will keep a regular Journal of your proceedings from the time of your embarkation; and transmit the original on a copy to me for his Excellency's Information. You will also keep a register of the Weather with the state of the Barometer and Thermometer which are supplied for this purpose.

6 You will use every exertion to conciliate the Natives and with this view a supply of Tomahawks and Blankets is sent as presents for them.

7 Copies of the Indents of the Convicts selected for this service are enclosed with Lists of the Provisions and Stores. The strictest attention must be paid to the issue and case of the latter and they must be duly accounted for

8 The Convicts are to be allowed a proportion of Tea and Sugar daily in addition to the common ration, according to the accompanying Scale but as Government has a right to their Labour no extra Provisions will be allowed as a means of stimulating their exertions. It is therefore to be clearly understood that the allowance of Tea, Sugar and Tobacco will be considered only in the light of "indulgencies" and is not to be issued in the event
