The leadership of women expressing their experience of possibility and power: within the church

The leadership of women expressing their experience of possibility and power: within the church

What barriers do women face in expressing their leadership and experience of possibility and power? What are the cultural attitudes and beliefs that inhibit women from fully expressing their leadership and experience of possibility and power within the church? How can we support women in church leadership positions and how can we create an environment that allows for the full expression of women's leadership and experience? Is the church truly inclusive and supportive of women in leadership roles? What steps can we take to address these issues and support the development of women leaders within the church?
